

Parnall Aircraft Company Tour

Parnall Aircraft Company: Constructing a Spitfire Legacy

The Parnall Aircraft Company, situated at Trelonk Estate in Cornwall, invites you to an exclusive Spitfire Experience Day. Tour the hangar, where they are reconstructing a MK 5b Vickers Supermarine Spitfire, using original parts and methods from the 1940s.

The aviation engineers will take you on a guided tour, walking you through the history of the Parnall Aircraft Company, the construction 'St. Ives Spitfire', originally constructed in 1942, and their other projects. You'll see the inner workings of their full-scale spitfire, as well as demonstrations of the methods they use for the build.

Take to the hot seat for the perfect photo opportunity, sitting in the cockpit in the St. Ives Spitfire. Your photo can be printed and framed to commemorate your day.

You'll also enjoy a Cornish Lunch at their onsite Wild Cornwall Café, made with fresh, local and homegrown ingredients.

Exclusive Experience Day for max 30 people, on a Saturday in November of your choosing.

Agenda 1: £50pp

Arrival approx. 10:30am

Tea and Coffee on arrival, introductory talk from the team and video.

Tour of the hangar, our current build projects and taking you through the history and origins of the 'St. Ives Spitfire' and the Parnall Aircraft Company.

Photo opportunities in the Spitfire which can be digitally sent – these can be printed and framed for an extra cost.

Lunch, either a sit-down meal or a buffet – TBC by yourselves.

Workshop, where the team will show you some of the processes used here for the constructions.

Agenda 2: £40pp

Arrival approx. 10:30am

Tea and Coffee on arrival, introductory talk from the team and video.

Tour of the hangar, our current build and taking you through the history and origins of the 'St. Ives Spitfire' and the Parnall Aircraft Company.

Photo opportunities in the Spitfire which can be digitally sent – these can be printed and framed for an extra cost.

Lunch, either a sit-down meal or a buffet – TBC by yourselves.